

Club Child Protection Policy statement

Good Practice at Sutton Churches Tennis Club

- Sutton Churches Tennis Club aims to create an enjoyable environment for all juniors who wish to take part in tennis, other sport and social activities at the club
- The club emphasizes that young people have the right to be safe, secure and free from threat
- The club acknowledges that young people have the right to be treated with respect and for their concerns to be listened to and acted upon
- The club will ensure that junior members have specific programmes and facilities designated for them, with adequate supervision
- The club has procedures in place to help any person who requests help and support on a confidential basis, in issues relating to Child Protection
- The club will ensure that the Head Coach holds coaching qualifications from a recognized tennis body and that other coaches and coaching assistants are either licensed by a recognized tennis body or have signed the club Self Declaration Form in relation to Child Protection.
- The club will ensure that any club members and volunteers working with young people are aware of and apply the LTA Code of Conduct for Those Working with Children in Tennis, and have signed the club Self Declaration Form in relation to Child Protection
- The club has an adult member who is specifically responsible for young people.
